
Sealed Q evaluates completion; full-rule extraction evaluates downstream fidelity.
Count unique geometry queries, recorded solver CPU work, and measured completion cost separately.